33	Federal Domestic Preparedness Records from National Security Briefings- RCW 42.56.420(1)(b), & RCW 42.56.240(1)	The withheld or redacted record is information prepared from national security briefings provided to state or local government officials related to domestic preparedness for acts of terrorism. This record is assembled, prepared, or maintained to prevent, mitigate, or respond to criminal terrorist acts. The public disclosure of this record would have a substantial likelihood of threatening public safety. Additionally, the withheld record is specific intelligence information and was compiled by a law enforcement agency. Specific intelligence information compiled by investigative and law enforcement agencies, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement, is exempt from production under the Public Records Act. Disclosure of this record would cause Homeland security risk involving Navy. Accordingly, nondisclosure is essential to effective law enforcement.
